THE SYRIAN CARMELITE CONGREGATION OF MALABAR

Three saintly Malabar Syrian priests, with the approbation and encouragement of their Bishop, laid the foundations of this Congregation at Mannanam, on 11th May, 1831. Two of the Founders, Fathers Thomas Palakal and Thomas Porukara, died early, while their companion, Fr. Cyriac Chavara, survived them and was destined long to guide the formation and growth of the Congregation in its early stages.

Fr. Cyriac and ten others made their profession of vows on the 8th of Dec. 1855, which event marked the canonical erection of the Congregation. The infant religious institute developed slowly but steadily. The edifying life of its members, the fervent mission they preached, their zeal for the pious and solid formation and training of students for priesthood, and untiring and often heroic labours to combat schism and heresy, add their solicitude to preserve the treasure of Faith among Catholics - all these drew forth admiration, respect and encouragement for them from superiors, the clergy, and the people. A new force for good had appeared in their midst and its influence was being clearly felt.

Many enthusiastically sought admission into the ranks of the religious, and many new Houses sprang into existence in various parts of the country - at Coonammavu (1857), Vazhakulam (1859), Elthuruth (1864), Pulincunnu (1871), Ampalakatt (1874), Mutholy (1885). Meanwhile, Fr. Cyriac Elias closed his precious life with a saintly death, on 3rd Jan. 1871. He was succeeded in Office by the worthy and saintly Fr. Cyriac Eliseus Porukara.

The Holy See was pleased with the growth and activities of the Congregation, so much so that it approved its Constitutions on the 1st Jan. 1885, thus raising it to the status of 'Juris Pontificii'. They were permanently approved in 1906.

With the growth of the Congregation, its activities also duly developed. The Apostolate of the Catholic press was started as early as 1846, by Fr. Cyriac Elias himself, by establishing the St. Joseph's Press at Mannanan. A great couragious step of far reaching importance, in this line was marked with the starting of the newspaper "The Nazarani Deepika", from this press, in 1887. The 'Karmela Kusumam' magazine followed it in 1903. Other printing establishments also followed, one at Elthurth (1895), another at Thevara (1926) and lastly at Kottayam (1939). The Kudumba Deepam and the Deepika Weekly Edition, are other organs that have sprung up in this line.

Since 1885, another important branch of activity that has taken root and developed with success in the Congregation, is the work of conversion. Most of the Houses maintain a Catechumenate for this purpose. Efforts were first directed to the conversion of non-Christians. But, now for the past 25 or 30 years, non Catholics have also come in for special attention. It must be acknowledged with thanksgiving that the Lord has tangibly blessed those works of conversion, by which more than 30,000 souls have been brought into the lap of the Church.

Activities of the Congregation in the field of English education also began from 1885, with the starting of an English school at Mannanam. In the course of years many other schools & Boarding Houses sprung up. For a long time, the English schools maintained by the Congregation, had the role of Pioneer institutions among our people. These educational activities have recently culminated in the establishment of the Sacred Heart University College and Hostels, at Thevara.

A development of recent origin is the acceptance of Mission Stations in the various Dioceses in the country. There are more than 25 Fathers now working in these various Missions. It is likely to develop into other dioceses in India as well as outside India.

With the growth of the Congregation in its members and in its Houses and with the development of its apostolic activities, the opinion has been gradually taking shape that the time is ripe for the division of the Congregation into Provinces. The Holy See is the final judge on this important point, and will no doubt, do the needful when the time for it duly arrives.
